

Firewalking

An Ancient Ritual of Personal Empowerment

with Charlotte Carreira and special guests

Sat. June 1 6:00-11:00pm

Do you feel you are changing?

Have you experienced trials and tribulations in your life?

Do you feel a strong calling to step into MORE of your courageous self?

Are you ready to break free of your limiting beliefs and fears?
that keeps you from fully participating in life?

It is time to become our own ritual

The life enhancing & creative power of this ritual is offered to shift our perception of what is possible & become receptive to:

Practiced by people all over the world for thousands of years, the Firewalk is a Sacred Ritual used as a Rites-of-Passage Ceremony

- Honoring the power of Ritual
- Reflecting on beliefs we hold that heal & empower us
- Transforming our fears into action
- Reclaiming our power by trusting in the Unknown
- Experiencing strength, courage and faith that only miracles know
- Connecting with the grounding force of Mother Nature & learning to use it as a viable source in our lives
- Claiming the creative power of success for our future selves

Charlotte Carreira is a certified firewalk instructor and since 1989 has facilitated thousands of people in the firewalk ritual. She is a successful Wellness Coach and entrepreneur helping others to transform their health and lives.

To register: 831-688-1858 or go to <http://www.radiant-wellness.com/programs--events.html>

Cost: $25 donation & offering of herbal plants to the property keeper

Location: Santa Cruz/Soquel mountains

You must register for this event. Location & specific logistics provided upon registration.

*actual walking on hot coals is purely optional—be open to what the entire evening has to offer.

